MARCH 20-22, 2017
TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY COLLEGE STATION, TX

- To expand high-impact service learning projects through university-community partnerships
- To foster more sustainable and resilient communities

Attendees:
- University representatives
- City officials
- Organizational partners

What:
- Peer-to-peer learning sessions
- Engaging activities
- Interactive presentations

The EPIC-N is a network of leading universities across the country on high-impact service learning. www.epicn.org/annualconference/

The Century Tree (right) was one of the first trees planted at Texas A&M. It represents the spirit of:
Fostering lasting communities
Growing our network
Extending our reach