AGEING, LONGEVITY AND HEALTH - NEW FRONTIERS AND PERSPECTIVES

2018 INTERNATIONAL ALLIANCE OF RESEARCH UNIVERSITIES (IARU) AGEING, LONGEVITY AND HEALTH SCIENTIFIC AND GRADUATE STUDENT CONFERENCE

Organised by:
The Centre for Ageing Research and Education, Duke NUS Medical School, Singapore
We have arrived at an era where people are living longer. At this crossroads, the science, art and practice of longevity is alive with a horizon of possibilities to unlock the longevity dividend. Radical ideas and interdisciplinary approaches have been introduced to understand the experience of ageing from the perspectives of health, labour, housing, transport, urban planning, leisure, social participation, education and intergenerational relationships. This conference aims to bring together leading thinkers and practitioners and feature some of the best practices in the field of population ageing.

The Centre for Ageing Research and Education (CARE) is proud to host the 2018 International Alliance of Research Universities (IARU) Ageing, Longevity and Health (ALH) Scientific and Graduate Student Conference. The conference will be held at the Duke-NUS Medical School on 17 October 2018. The conference will feature key research initiatives of the Ageing, Longevity and Health network.

CONFERENCE THEMATIC FOCUS:

- HEALTHY AGEING

- INTERVENTIONS TO SUPPORT AT RISK OLDER ADULTS IN THE COMMUNITY

- EMPLOYMENT AND EMPLOYABILITY OF OLDER ADULTS

- AGEING, TECHNOLOGY AND THE ENVIRONMENT

Graduate Student Conference (GSC)
The Graduate Student Conference (GSC) serves as an interdisciplinary platform for graduate students to share their research and explore the possibility of collaborative partnerships within the IARU Network.

The Graduate Student Conference (GSC) serves as an interdisciplinary platform for graduate students to share their research and explore the possibility of collaborative partnerships within the International Alliance of Research Universities (IARU) Network. The call for abstracts is open to all Graduate Students both within the IARU Network as well as other universities.

A limited number of conference support applications available to graduate students will be sponsored by International Alliance of Research Universities (IARU) and the Centre for Ageing Research and Education (CARE).

Candidates whose abstracts are selected for the poster presentation are eligible to apply for partial conference support of up to SGD$1500.00

 Key Dates: **
 10 August 2018:  Abstract submission closing date
 17 August 2018:  Notification to authors of shortlisted abstracts

The Committee will review all abstracts and author[s] of shortlisted abstracts will be notified.

 Conditions of Conference Support Application:
 i) Application must be submitted for consideration.

ii) Actual amount granted will be based on reimbursements of two main items – cost of airfares and accommodation.

Visiting Singapore

Close to the heart of the city and just 30 minutes from Singapore Changi Airport, delegates to Singapore will have no trouble filling their down time during their stay when they find themselves immersed in Singapore’s rich tapestry of cultures, heritage hubs, art and gastronomical experiences.
