

3rd APRU University Museum Research Symposium,
Hong Kong University, 5-7 October 2016

5 October 2016

6-8pm: Welcome Reception, HKU University Museum and Art Gallery (host: Dr Florian Knothe)

6 October 2016

9.30 am Registration (HKU Library, 3/F)

10 am Opening remarks: Professor Peter Mathieson, HKU President and VC and Christina Schönleber, APRU Secretariat

10.15 am Introduction: Dr Florian Knothe, HKU University Museum and Art Gallery

10.30am Siddharta Perez (siddperez@nus.edu.sg), NUS, Singapore: "The Prep Room, The Café and The Infoshop: Generative projects in Museum exhibitions"

11 am tea & coffee (HKU Library, 3/F)

11.30 am Fiona Moore (mooref@unimelb.edu.au) Faculty of Arts at the University of Melbourne:
"Cultural Collections and Object Based Learning at the University of Melbourne"

12 noon Dr Takashi Amijima (amijima.takashi.8x@kyoto-u.ac.jp), The Kyoto University Museum, Kyoto University: "Museum teaching and outreach program: The evaluation of Kyoto University's Children's Museum"

12.30 pm lunch (HKU University Museum and Art Gallery)

2 pm Dr Petra Bach, Curator and Lecturer, Stephen Hui Geological Museum, HKU:
"Connecting with Earth through object-based learning in a small University Museum"

2.30 pm Dr Harald Kraemer (H.Kraemer@cityu.edu.hk), City University, Hong Kong: "Unbalance so as to re-balance." Museums as Catalyst for Universities".

3 pm Cris Mattison, HKU University Museum and Art Gallery: "Preventing Conservation: Building capacity for preservation in Hong Kong Institutions"

3.30 pm tea & coffee (HKU Library, 3/F)

4 pm Keynote lecture: Peng-fan Chan (cpfjm@ntu.edu.tw), NTU, Taipei: The Shift of role of the National Taiwan University History Gallery: From 'public persona of the university' to 'facilitator of pedagogical evolution of museology"

5 pm Group Photo

6pm Conference Dinner

7 October 2016

- 9.30 am Registration (HKU Library, 3/F)
- 10 am Dr Christina Yu Yu (Christina.YuYu@pam.usc.edu), Director, USC Pacific Asia Museum, Los Angeles: “Bridging University and Museum”
- 10.30 am Dr Alistair Kwan (alistair.kwan@auckland.ac.nz), University of Auckland: “Mutual benefits from making teaching and collections intersect”.
- 11 am tea & coffee (Stephen Hui Geological Museum, G/F & 1/F James Lee Science Building)
- 12 noon Prof Naoko Iwasaki, The Kyoto University Museum, Kyoto University: “The Challenge of 15 University Museums in Kyoto”.
- 12.30pm lunch (HKU Library, 3/F) (optional visit to HKU Jao Tsung-I Petite Ecole)
- 2 pm Keynote lecture: Dr Heather Gaunt (heather.gaunt@unimelb.edu.au), University of Melbourne: “Ethics and art: Using art to foster ethics development in health professional students”
- 3 pm tea & coffee (HKU Library, 3/F)
- 3.30 pm Yaxi Liu (liuyaxi1987@163.com), Exhibition Designer & Coordinator, Tsinghua University Art Museum, Beijing: “Evolving networks: Experiments on the curatorial practices of Tsinghua University Art Museum”.
- 4 pm Nikitin Evgeniy, Scientific Museum FEFU, Vladivostok, Russia: “Expeditions of the Educational and scientific museum as base of a practical training of students, undergraduates, graduate students of FEFU”
- 4.30 pm Closing remarks: Dr Florian Knothe and Christina Schönleber
- 5 pm Farewell Reception, HKU Library (host Mr Peter Sidorko, Librarian HKU)
- (Opening of new entrance foyer and exhibition space at HKU Library (special guest: Professor Peter Mathieson, HKU President and VC))

