

SESSION 2

Disaster risk management initiatives in various sectors and fields

In this session, the experts with different expertise and experiences in various organizations present critical issues and case studies in the field of education and training for disaster risk reduction, humanitarian assistance, science and technology, and public health.

Americas: August 4 (Thu) (2 hours)

4 pm (Honolulu) / 7 pm (Los Angeles) / 9 pm (Mexico City)

Asia and the Pacific: August 5 (Fri) (2 hours)

9 am (Bangkok) / 10 am (Sichuan/Manila/Taipei) / 11 am (Tokyo) / 12 pm (Sydney)

Event page: <https://apru.org/event/2022-apru-multi-hazards-summer-lecture-series/>

Register here: https://us06web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_yQPnLQTaQwiNMxWmDnnfIQ

Alberto Morales Jr.

Branch Chief,
Applied Research and
Information Sharing (ARIS),
Center for Excellence in Disaster
Management & Humanitarian
Assistance (CFE-DM)

Gretchen Kalonji

Dean of Institute for Disaster
Management and Reconstruction
(IDMR), Sichuan University – The
Hong Kong Polytechnic University

Yanling Lee (Sophia)

Assistant Research Fellow,
International Collaborations, NCDR
Secretary General, APEC Emergency
Preparedness Capacity Building
Center (EPCC)

Natt Leelawat

Assistant Professor,
Industrial Engineering,
Faculty of Engineering,
Chulalongkorn University

Moderator

Takako Izumi

Associate Professor,
IRIDeS, Tohoku University / Director of
APRU Multi-Hazards Program

Contact

Dr. Takako Izumi, Ms Sachiko Kumagai,
IRIDeS, Tohoku University

Email: application\_apruss@irides.tohoku.ac.jp